

DESCRIPTION OF A PLACE: An Example

Topic: Write an article for a travel magazine in which you describe a place that you believe should be visited by travellers.

Limassol is a relaxed and charming city in Cyprus, the island of Aphrodite. Have you ever visited it? If you haven't, you mustn't delay your visit any longer.

This lovely city is as old as time and if you like history and tradition you will be spoilt for choice. One place which is an absolute "must" for any visitor is the Medieval Castle on the edge of the city centre. Built of coarse beige stone, it houses many ancient treasures. After an informative guided tour of the interior, take a stroll in its lush green gardens or sit in one of the modern cafes in the surrounding area to enjoy your refreshing beverage al fresco.

Limassol also has a lot to offer to people interested in having fun. Go to the seafront, a long wide avenue, and become acquainted with the numerous bustling clubs, restaurants and cafes. Taste the traditional cuisine and see the locals meeting up with their friends to unwind at the end of an exhausting day. Who can visit Limassol and not be lured by the crystal clear blue waters of the Mediterranean sea? Take a long rejuvenating swim and sunbathe to get that tan that will make your friends back home envious.

Whether you like history or the modern face of a city, Limassol is bound to enthuse you. Visit it and your stay is guaranteed to be memorable.
